

UNIQUE ELEGANCE

With Easter in mind, Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary will present a pre-Easter show of elegant new fashions at its annual fashion-luncheon benefit on March 29 in the Regency Room at the Airport Marina Hotel in Westchester. In preparation for the show, Mrs. Stanley R. Coughlan, right, general chairman of the benefit, inspects two of the new Easter costumes, from left, a new blouson creation worn by Mrs. Chester H. Widmann, and, center, a dressy shift with one of spring's newest hats, worn by Mrs. James F. Casey. (Press-Herald Photo)

Hospital Auxiliary Presents Easter Fashion-Benefit

What milady will be wearing in this year's Easter Parade will be promodated for South Bay women when the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary sponsors its annual pre-Easter fashion show and gourmet luncheon on Tuesday, March 29.

Setting for the gala Easter fashion preview and luncheon is the Regency Room of the Airport Marina Hotel in Westchester beginning at 11:30 a.m. with a cocktail hour.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used to equip the pediatrics wing soon to be opened at the hospital, according to Mrs. Karl Ransom, auxiliary president.

Mrs. Stanley R. Coughlan is serving as general chairman. Mrs. Robert Jenkinson is in charge of ticket sales and Mrs. Frances J. Snyder is taking table reservations. Festive Easter table centerpieces are being made by Mrs. Arthur Grayson and Mrs. Robert Brown.

Mrs. Chester Widmann will act as fashion coordinator and will also model the high style ensembles with accessories from a Redondo Beach salon.

The luncheon will be served at 12:30. Mrs. Edward Gunday has prepared souvenir programs and background music will be furnished by Ed Whitting.

Among the many door prizes to be awarded will be an all-expense paid weekend in Las Vegas. Those wishing tickets for the Fashion-Luncheon may call Mrs. Robert Jenkinson.

NEW FABRICS, LINES AND COLORS

Members and guests attending the Welcome Wagon Club's annual fashion show and luncheon on Thursday, April 14, at the Los Verdes Country Club, will see the new season's loveliest fashions modeled by members and described by Mrs. Frank Nordhoff, chairman of the event. Posing in some of the new creations to be promodated are, from left, Mmes. James R. Wells, Wayne A. Zarfus, Frank Nordhoff and Donald Stewart. (Press-Herald Photo)

Amid Colorful Spring Decor

New Fashions to Sparkle

Spring's loveliest blossoms, used in abundance, will decorate the Los Verdes Country Club on Thursday, April 14 providing an effective setting for the promenade of new spring and summer fashions to be presented by the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club.

Showing the array of new fashions at the Country Club, located at 30201 Hawthorne Blvd., Palos Verdes Peninsula, will be a Del Amo Center shop Mrs. Frank Nordhoff, chairman of the fashion luncheon, will be the commentator.

Club members will model. They are Mmes. Wayne Zarfus, James Wells, Don Stewart, Jess Riley, Richard Odgers, and Glenn Lowder.

A musical background for the show will be furnished by Mrs. John Lake and Mrs. John Noel.

All newcomers, as well as members and guests, are invited to attend the event. For information or reservations Mrs. John Marjenson, 23221 S. Anza Ave., or Mrs. Frank Nordhoff, 23229 La-deene Ave. may be called.

Future Bride

Pocoroba - Stanley

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent B. Pocoroba of Paradise, Calif. announce the engagement of their daughter, Madalene Louise, to John Howard Stanley.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel G. Stanley, 5348 Carol Dr., Torrance.

Miss Pocoroba is a graduating senior at Torrance High School. Her fiance is a graduate of South High School and is now a sophomore at El Camino College.

No date has been set for the wedding.

MADALENE POCOROBA

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 23, 1966

B-1

Sir Beaumain Auxiliary

Members' Coffee

Sir Beaumain's Auxiliary of the Children's Home Society will celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Home Society with the annual Membership Coffee on Monday evening, March 28, at 8 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Partridge, 513 Blossom Lane, Redondo Beach. Mrs. Partridge is president of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Bess Jones, case worker with the Long Beach office of Children's Home Society, will be guest speaker. She will discuss the work of the agency, how it helps the child, the natural parents and the adoptive parents.

Mrs. Partridge will explain the work of the Auxiliary, one among 40 auxiliaries in the Los Angeles area, and how funds are raised to help finance the adoption program.

Mrs. Monier Bowlus is in charge of the event and anyone desiring more information may call her.

Children's Home Society was founded in 1891 and is the largest private adoption agency in the state and is a member of the Los Angeles County United Crusade. The Long Beach office is located at 127 E. 14th St.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Sir Beaumain's Auxiliary will hold its annual Membership Coffee on March 28 in celebration of the 75th anniversary of the Children's Home Society. Guests will hear a talk on the Society's adoption program. In a planning session for the event are Mrs. Thomas Tucker, serving two members, Mmes. Kenneth Partridge and Charles Burton. Sharing the party planning is petite Sharon, adopted daughter of Mrs. Partridge. (Press-Herald Photo)

Cerebral Palsy Benefit

Elk Ladies Present Show

"Jewels of Fashion" is the theme of the Fashion Show and Luncheon to be staged by the Torrance Ladies of the Elks at the Los Verdes Country Club on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, next Saturday, March 26. Mrs. Willmer Oak, general chairman, announces that the cocktail hour will begin at 11:30 a.m. followed by luncheon at 12:30.

Elk Ladies will model spring's newest fashions provided by a local fashion salon. Models include, Mmes. Harry Alexander, Marvin Jones, Kenneth Falcover, Patrick Huffine, Norval Scrivens and Robert Craine.

Mrs. F. W. Fahnestock, co-chairman, will serve as commentator. Decorations carrying out the "Jewel" theme will be the work of Mmes. Willmer Oak and Mrs. Fahnestock.

Mrs. Harold Berry and Mrs. Clarence Johnson are in charge of the awarding of the grand door prize and Mrs. Joseph Yates is handling the other prizes.

Mmes. Clifford Crume and Mrs. Marvin Jones, program chairmen, have announced that a double quartet from Sweet Adelines, Inc. will entertain.

The Fashion-Luncheon is the Elk Ladies' major fund raising event of the year and all proceeds will go to the Cerebral Palsy Foundation.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Don Lemen or Mrs. Clarence Johnson.

Torrance Y-Wives to Stage Show Tonight

"A Spring Bouquet of Fashion" will be presented this evening at 7:30 in the Plush Horse Restaurant. Mrs. Pat Davis, ways and means chairman for the Torrance Y-Wives, announces that a Rolling Hills Plaza shop will once again supply the fashions. Models' hair styles will be provided by a Torrance salon.

Among the models will be Y-Wives, Adrienne Livoti, Marsha Billings, Ellen Sowens, Judi Bishop, Carol Houghland, Lori Fontano, Jane Allie, Juanita Boldt, Gail Davis, Sheri Casler and Sara Robbins. One of the highlights of the evening will be the presentation of a $100 money tree along with several other door prizes.

Tickets are available at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson.

REHEARSE FOR SHOW

Busy with final preparations for the benefit fashion luncheon to be held Saturday, March 26, at Los Verdes Country Club, are members of the Torrance Ladies of the Elk. Here, from left, Mmes. Patrick Huffine and Norval Scrivens model two costumes under the direction of Mrs. Willmer Oak, show chairman. Proceeds will go to the Cerebral Palsy Fund. (Press-Herald Photo)